

Portland, Oregon! Explore art, culture, & nature blooming in the City of Roses

Where else can you see the nation's smallest city park, discover the dark history of the Shanghai Slave Trade in an underground walking tour, find yourself in an authentic Ming Dynasty Suzhou-style Chinese Garden, and get lost in the world's largest independently owned bookstore?

Picture It

Portland, a city boasting of vibrant neighborhoods, trendy shopping, and charming gardens is waiting for you! Portland is located on the West Coast, north of California and south of British Columbia, Canada. Known as "The City That Works", Portland is famous for its great city planning and it's easy going, friendly people. Buses, trams, and streetcars make exploring Portland a breeze and, best of all, they are free in the entire downtown district. Enjoy a two-night stay at the Northwest Portland International Hostel, centrally located in the heart of the historic and hip Nob Hill neighborhood. You won't be disappointed! Portland is... America's most European city – streetcars & trams, coffee shops, open-air markets; a city of nature – over 250 city parks, surrounded by rivers, mountains, & forest; art & culture – museums, art galleries, live music; a city of fountains - designed for you to go in (while other cities want to keep you out!); tax free shopping – boutique lined streets, a vibrant downtown; made for people – from bike lanes to skate parks; river walks to nature trails. Find out why Portland is unique!
